

◆ SACRED SINAI ◆

An Adult Education series focusing on Diversity & Inclusion

Sunday, October 3, 2021,
10:00-11:30am on Zoom –
What Does it Mean to Be
A Kehillah Kedosha,
A Sacred Community?

This session will frame the series as we understand kedosha/sanctity to mean full inclusion and belonging, and we begin to learn about the many identities of our kehillah/community. Text study and basic information on the diversity of today's Jewish community. Presented by Rabbi Myra Soifer.

Sunday, November 7, 2021,
10:00-11:30am on Zoom –
Growing Older,
Growing Better

Who are our elders, what are the realities of aging, and how do we fully include this part of our community? With Rabbi Richard Address, Founder and Director of the Project on Sacred Aging.*

Sunday, December 5, 2021,
10:00-11:30am on Zoom –
Blue Like Me

The multi-cultural identity and insights of Indian Jewish artist Siona Benjamin, including a historic overview of the Indian Jewish community. With Siona Benjamin.*

(Special thanks to Dr. Deborah Achtenberg who introduced the work of artist Siona Benjamin to our Torah study class.)
