Our featured speaker, Henry Michalski, was born in a camp in Kazakhstan and moved to the United States with his family in 1949. He had a long career as a high school history teacher and now lives in San Francisco. Henry published a well-written and well-received account of his parent's World War II story and their survival titled "Torn Lilacs: A True WWII Story of Love, Defiance and Hope". He is coming to Reno to share this story with us.
