Sukkot Novel Noshers

"What if there was a town that Hitler missed? For over fifty years the tiny Jewish shtetl of Kreskol has existed virtually untouched and unchanged. Spared of the Holocaust and Cold War, Kreskol has enjoyed an isolated peace. But when a marriage dispute spirals out of control, Kreskol is suddenly rediscovered and brought into the 21st Century."

Check out The Lost Shtetl in the Library & come to Novel Noshers on Oct 20th @2:30pm!

Edible Book Fest

Celebrate Jewish Book Month!

- November 16th @ 1pm
- All ages welcome!
- Show off your creative or culinary skills!

Rules

- Must be based on a book in Temple Sinai library.
- Display must be made with mostly food.
- No toxic ingredients, please! No pork or shellfish (this is still a synagogue!)

Voting Categories

- Best in Show
- Most Edible
- Funniest / Punniest
- Most Literary

Used Books

Pick up gently used (and often hard to find!) books in the synagogue lobby.

Have something specific in mind? Contact us at library@sinaireno.org to see if we have a copy!

Hardcovers and Media: $1.00.
Paperbacks: $0.50

Celebrate a Life Event!

Temple Sinai Library Committee has created a wishlist, if you feel like donating to the collection, we would love your support.

When you donate a book from the wishlist, we'll add a bookplate in honor of your donation, a great way to celebrate a life event!

About the Library

About Us: The Temple Sinai Library committee strives to provide meaningful programming, relevant collections, and a comfortable, accessible space where members of all ages can engage in Jewish learning and appreciation.

Library Hours: study, work, relax, and reinvigorate while being surrounded by great books and free wi-fi. If the synagogue is open, we're open.

Our 'Biggest Little Jewish Libraries' thrive because of committee volunteers. Want to help us write the next chapter? Join our committee (library@sinaireno.org).
